Student Non-Fraternization Policy

Center for P-16 Initiatives

The Center for P-16 Initiatives expects all employees including staff and support staff to maintain the highest professional and ethical standards in their communications, and interactions with students who are employed or affiliated with the Center.

All employees are expected to accept responsibility for their conduct and understand that their conduct and interactions may be regarded as a representative of the Center for P-16 Initiatives. Appropriate interactions are interactions that are focused on the work and mission for the Center for P-16 Initiatives.

The following interactions would be considered inappropriate with staff and students and prohibited during work hours at the Center for P-16 Initiatives.

- Socializations with students unrelated to any purpose that is not related to the mission of the Center;
- Interactions with students that are related to other staff members, management, or personnel issues at the Center;
- Interactions or socializations that focus and encourage and emotional dependence on the staff member;
- Interactions that inappropriately focus on student’s appearance

As we move forward as a Center is important to maintain professional boundaries with students.
