The DAVID A. WINSTON HEALTH POLICY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM recognizes student excellence and achievement based upon the student's record and recommendations from faculty and colleagues and evidence of their interest in and commitment to health policy. Up to twenty $10,000 scholarships will be offered to students who express and demonstrate commitment to improvement of the U.S. health care system, as well as leadership, academic achievement, community involvement and long-term career interests in the fields of health policy, public health, health administration and/or health management.

Eligibility Criteria

- The DAVID A. WINSTON HEALTH POLICY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM is open to students in their second full-time semester or third full-time equivalent quarter for those in two year programs or those in longer programs, their next to final year, studying at any AUPHA or ASPPH member graduate program.
- Applicants must be scheduled to complete the didactic portion of their degree not later than June 2020.
- U.S. citizenship is required.
- Scholars are selected based on expressed and demonstrated commitment to health policy, leadership, academic achievement, community involvement and long term career interest in health policy.

Submission Requirements

- A resume detailing both professional and extracurricular activities.
- A personal statement detailing the applicant's interest in and commitment to health policy and how they intend to pursue policy within their career. This statement should be roughly one and one half single spaced pages in length and should provide detail on what experiences in your life have directed you towards a career in health policy and what your future career aspirations are. The statement should outline how your academic preparation has and will continue to prepare you for a career in health policy.
- Undergraduate and graduate registrar-issued transcripts (at least one full-time equivalent semester of graduate work in health management or health policy must appear on graduate transcript). All transcripts from all higher education institutions attended are required and must arrive by 5 pm ET Friday, April 5, 2019.
- Two letters of nomination. One letter must be from a faculty member in your degree program. The second letter must be from a preceptor or employer. Both letters should be on letterhead, signed, and speak specifically to your qualifications for this scholarship.
