

C.T. Sisson

C.T. Sisson was a composer of instrumental piano works. Titles and publications of the compositions indicate that Sisson was based in Central Texas. "The Dallas Polka," published in Austin in 1876, and the Austin Schottische, composed in 1872 are two of the more notable songs. Other American 19th-century sheet music under copyright deposits between 1870-1885 include "Sisson's Polka" (1871).
