20 Bobcats Connect: HR Crossword Puzzle

The HR Bulletin keeps you informed on HR topics and news pertaining to Texas State. We would love to hear from you! Please send your suggestions to hr@txstate.edu
Texas State will observe the holiday break December 23, 2019 – January 3, 2020. Texas State will re-open on January 6, 2020. There are no energy conservation days for the holiday break this year.

Employees are required to be on a paid status at least part of the regular workday immediately before a holiday in order to receive holiday pay. Therefore, if you do not have comp time or vacation available to use on December 20, 2019, you will not receive pay for the holidays unless you work part of the workday that day. State law will not allow us to pay for holidays when a person is on a leave without pay status the entire day before a holiday.

The holiday schedule can be viewed on the HR Website.

Remember, you only report exceptions to your normal work schedule. All holidays are already programmed into your work schedule, so you do not record the holiday itself. The system also knows if you are eligible for the holiday based on whether you are in a paid status on the day before the holiday. If you work on a holiday, be sure to enter Code 0100 – Additional Hours Worked for all hours worked. Regular staff who report to work on an official holiday will be allowed comp time off during the twelve-month period following the holiday.

Questions about timekeeping should first be addressed to your supervisor or department time administrator. If you need further assistance, contact hr@txstate.edu or call 5.2557.

Recently, the IRS announced that it was giving the IRS form W-4 a major overhaul. This is the form used by employees to determine the amount of federal tax withheld from their paycheck. Beginning in January, all changes to tax withholding will be on the new W-4 form whether on paper or the SAP Portal. This change only impacts those who wish to make a change to their withholding status and new employees. Current employees do not need to take any action if satisfied with their withholding amount.

More specific information will be coming soon from the Office of Payroll and Tax Compliance.

For more information before the new form is published, see IRS Frequently Asked Questions.

How Well Do You Know Your Health Risk?

Knowledge is Power!

Knowing your health risks is a key factor to improving your overall health. What can you do? Take a health risk assessment to improve your health.

A health risk assessment is an easy-to-answer, short set of questions about your health, diet, physical activity, sleep habits and medical history that helps you understand your current health and any conditions you might be at risk for.

Complete a health risk assessment (HRA) online through your health plan or the personal health and wellness appraisal through the WellCats program. Your health information is private and secure.
HealthSelect of Texas® & Consumer Directed HealthSelectSM plans:
If you already have a Blue Access for MembersSM account, log in. If you do not have an account yet, click Register Now and use your medical ID card to create an account. Once you’re logged in, click on Well onTarget® under the Quick Links on the left to access the health assessment.

Scott and White Health Plan:
Log in to your account to take an online wellness assessment and get a health improvement action plan. If you don’t have an account yet, click Log In and then Sign Up Now. Use your medical ID card to create an account and find the online wellness assessment.

Community First Health Plans:
Log in to your account to take an online health assessment. You’ll then get a personalized plan for making healthy lifestyle changes.

Employees and dependents who are not enrolled in these health plans can complete the online health assessment on the Scott and White website. Another option is to access the online personal health and wellness appraisal through the WellCats program by registering on the WellCats website. Your individual HRA results are yours to help you understand your own health and what you can do to improve it. Start taking steps toward a healthier life.
You can carry over a maximum of $500 in your TexFlex health care account. You can log in to your TexFlex account at www.texflex-fsa.com to view your balances. You have until December 31, 2019 to file any claims incurred between September 1, 2018 – August 31, 2019. On January 1, 2020, if you have more than $500 left from the last plan year, you will forfeit that amount.

The TexFlex Dependent Day Care does not have a carry-over. The last day to submit claims for day care expenses incurred between September 1, 2018 – November 15, 2019 (there is a 2 ½ month grace period) is December 31, 2019.

Mr. Jacob Sloan, Student Conduct Officer-SDS II, Dean of Students Office, was selected as the Texas State Employee of the Month for November 2019.

Jacob (Jake) supports his area in providing a safe learning environment through the management of the university discipline process. He assists with a variety of aspects within Student Conduct including, but not limited to, processing referrals to Student Conduct from faculty, staff and students; investigating and adjudicating students for alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct or university policy; advising and referring students to the appropriate offices and personnel; assisting with developing and implementing training for the Student Conduct Hearing Board and assisting with managing the technology needs for Student Conduct.

Through his position, he interacts with faculty, staff, and students on campus.

In addition to adjudicating students, Jake assists in managing the technology needs for the Student Conduct area. He has assisted in streamlining the training and implementation of the new conduct case management software, Maxient. He has taken on the tasks of learning the program, understanding how the software can be customized for the different stakeholders, and training the different areas/individuals on how to use the program.

Jake is an enthusiastic team player in both the Dean of Students Office and the university community. He has a very strong work ethic as evidenced in his dependability, consistent and high-quality work, and willingness to go the extra mile for the office, division and university. Jake has been commended by his colleagues internally as well as across campus for his assistance during the transition to Maxient.

Jake represents the university well when he interacts with faculty, staff, students, parents and attorneys. Investigator T.L. Palmer of UPD mentioned that “…Jake is a huge asset to the working relationship between the University Police Department and handling issues with students at Texas State University who are going through the disciplinary process…” Rusti Wade, Senior Administrative Assistant in the Office of the Provost and VPAA stated, “…His willingness to serve is evident in his actions and demeanor. He has always gone above and beyond…He has such a positive attitude and has been an invaluable resource to our office…”

Jake’s dedication to service has earned him the respect of his peers and the students at our institution.

“His willingness to serve is evident in his actions and demeanor.”

Congratulations, Jacob, on your dedication and hard work!
Texas State Quarterly Team Award

Texas State Quarterly Team Award
Student Affairs Educational Staff Development Team

The team members include: Dean of Students Office-Dr. Margarita Arellano, Student Recreation Center- Kristy Caldwell, Office of Student Diversity and Inclusion-Ray Cordero and Jonnie Wilson, Career Services-Emily Hawarny and Bridget Sarbu, Retention Management and Planning- Jennifer Wood, LBJ Student Center-Brenda Rodriguez, Department of Housing and Residential Life- John Doria and Amelia Rodriguez.

The Educational Staff Development Team (ESDT) planned and executed the Student Affairs Symposium, “Choose Your Path, Find your Balance” on Thursday, April 18, 2019. This service was provided to the staff employed in the Vice President for Student Affairs Division. The symposium was conference-style providing a welcome, keynote speaker, and multiple sessions for staff to select throughout the day.

The members of the committee held multiple focus groups with custodial and maintenance staff to gather more data for a sorely underrepresented group. It was important to gather feedback when creating a professional development program that would benefit new professionals through seasoned professionals, in addition to creating components that would benefit the diverse staff within the division.

The committee selected Dr. Lynn Chang, founder of Career Zen and author of “The 10 Day Career Cleanse” to keynote the symposium. The keynote addressed simple techniques based on neuroscience, positive psychology, meditation, and yoga to destress and create more happiness at the university, improve quality of work, increase productivity, and foster positive relationships.

Breakout sessions included the following - advocating for self, sponsorship vs. mentorship, path to leadership, building career plan, communication, energy growth (giving and receiving in the workplace), intellectual wellbeing, financial wellbeing, and self-care yoga. Multiple speakers from within and outside of the university were recruited based on expertise and experience in the various topics. Lunch included browsing sessions with departments across campus promoting services benefiting staff.

One of the goals of the Student Affairs Division is to recruit, develop, support and retain high quality, diverse staff. The Employee Staff Development Team exists to provide professional development opportunities and training resources to all staff. The team completed this robust conference-style program ahead of schedule, under budget, and with positive evaluations by attendees and presenters. Overall, evaluations demonstrate that the program provided helpful information on a personal level and professional level, contributed to future planning, and exceeded expectations.

Congratulations to the team on its achievements and outstanding efforts!
