Allies for Individuals with Disabilities

Students, faculty, and staff with disabilities are valued and affirmed individuals who contribute to and participate in the diversity at Texas State University and our global community. To promote awareness around ablesim and support individuals with disabilities to excel as members of Texas State, the Office of Disability Services Office offers Allies for Individuals with Disabilities training.

The goals of the training are to introduce ability and disability, increase attendees' understandings of disability communities and increase their visibility and Allies, understand rules of privileged and marginalization, to improve upon the knowledge and the best practices of “Allyship” and advocacy and commit to the inclusion and affirmation up individuals with disabilities.
