What are your Priorities?

Location, Location, Location
Do you want to live within walking distance to campus, or are you OK cycling to campus, or driving to campus? Most students will choose to park on campus. Visit parking.txstate.edu/round-rock for more information about parking on-campus.

Plan for Various Expenses
- Will you have to put down a security deposit and/or application fee?
- Do you have to make a deposit to turn on your utilities?
- Will you need a moving truck and packing supplies?
- Do you need to buy furniture or other household items?
  - Bathroom rugs, shower curtain, toilet paper, plunger
  - Kitchen dishes and flatware
  - Food
  - Lamps, light bulbs
  - TV
  - Cleaning supplies

Amenities
- Is there on-site maintenance?
- Is it pet-friendly and are there extra fees?
  - Some leases define pets as fish or insects.
  - A pet deposit and monthly pet rent is required and specific guidelines must be followed.
  - Regulations are also enforced by the City of Round Rock.
- Is yard work included?
- Are utilities included?

Budgeting is Key for Survival
- How much do you want to pay for rent?
  - You should work out your budget before you start looking. This will help you figure out what you can afford and whether you need roommates to help you live the lifestyle you want.
  - We suggest starting with the total monthly dollar amount you have to work with and then plug in your budget items.
  - Use the budgeting worksheet to assist you.

In Planning, You May Be Required to Have:
- Good and established credit history.
- Monthly income of 3 times the rent or you will probably need a guarantor.

A guarantor “a person that agrees to be responsible for another’s debt or performance under a contract, if the other fails to pay or perform.” (legal-dictionary.thefreedictionary.com)

Your guarantor may need:
- A good and established credit history
- Monthly income of up to 5 times the rent, depending on the property.

THE LEASE

SINGLE FAMILY ZONING IN ROUND ROCK
This defines family as any number of individuals living as a single housekeeping unit who are related by blood, legal adoption, marriage or conservatorship. In Round Rock, only one family plus one unrelated individual may occupy the dwelling.

For example, if you and your two best friends rent a home together, you may be in violation of the ordinance, subjecting you to an eviction and/or a hefty fine.

Penalties for zoning violations are assessed by a judge and may include fines of up to $2,000 per day, which if necessary may be secured by a property lien. If you have a question about whether or not your unit may be in this district, check with the City of Round Rock Planning Department at 512.218.5428 or visit www.roundrocktexas.gov and search “unrelated persons occupancy”.

RESEARCH THE PROPERTIES
Use Your Resources
• Ask friends or classmates.
• Read CURRENT reviews online.
• Go visit the properties.

DON’T BE IN A HURRY TO SIGN
• Look now, but don’t sign immediately.
• Know your move-in and move-out dates.
• Don’t sign multiple leases at different complexes in San Marcos and/or Round Rock.
• Don’t sign an “As-Is” Apartment Lease.
  - Follow the apartment’s move-in days. This will allow enough time for maintenance repairs and for it to be cleaned.

ATTORNEY FOR STUDENTS
The Attorney for Students (AFS) provides free legal advice to currently enrolled Texas State students. Before you sign a lease, make sure to review it thoroughly with the AFS. Anything you discuss with the Attorney for Students office is confidential and protected by the attorney-client privilege.

MOVE-IN READY APARTMENT
• Be cautious if you are considering signing a lease on a complex that is not completely built.
• You will want to make sure a property is move-in ready for the day you want and before school starts.

MODEL APARTMENT VS. REGULAR APARTMENT
• Model apartments may have never been lived in and may not show normal wear and tear.
• Model apartments may have different furniture, light fixtures, faucets, and/or appliances than regular apartments.

Model apartments may be in a different area of the complex (closer to the office/front of the complex) than a regular apartment.

LOOK AT SECURITY DEVICES
Under section 82.153 of the Texas Property Code, five security devices must be in all rental units:
1. Exterior Door Viewer: all exterior doors must have a way to view outside without opening the door. Whether this is through a peephole on the door, a window on the door, or windows just to the side of the door.
2. Exterior Door Keyless Bolt: all exterior doors must have a keyless bolting device.
3. Exterior Door Keyed Deadbolt or Doorknob Lock: all exterior doors, in addition to the keyless bolt, must have a doorknob lock. If there is no doorknob lock the deadbolt must be keyed.
4. Exterior Sliding Door Locks: all exterior sliding doors must have a pin lock and either a lock on the handle or have a security bar preventing entrance.
5. Exterior Window Locks: all exterior windows must have a locking or latching device.
TRADITIONAL OR CONVENTIONAL LEASE

- One lease for the entire apartment, which everyone over the age of 18 must sign.
- Only one guarantor.
- Responsible for finding your own roommates.
- If one roommate leaves, the others must pick up the rent costs, or find a new roommate.

INDIVIDUAL OR BY THE BED LEASE

- Each roommate signs their own lease.
- Every person has their own guarantor.
- Roommate matching is available at several locations.
- If a person leaves, the management company will find a new roommate and the current roommates are not responsible for their rent.

TYPES OF LEASES

Please Note: Many apartment complexes in college towns offer Individual/By the Bed Leases. However, most of the apartment complexes in Round Rock typically do not offer By The Bed Leases; the apartment complexes in Round Rock generally only offer Traditional or Conventional leases.

SIGNING A LEASE

Your lease is a legal-binding contract. Keep a copy of everything:

- Lease
- Security Deposit Receipt
- Special Agreements/Deals
- Maintenance Communication
- Move-In Condition Form

RELEASE OF RESIDENT

Unless there is a special provisions clause, or you fall under the military clause, you will not be released from your lease until the end of its term.

A sublease is an agreement in which you rent your apartment to another person with the property owner’s permission. You will still be responsible for rent and damages. You are not entitled to receive your security deposit back until your lease term ends. Be sure to read your lease carefully. Many properties forbid subleasing.

A relet is a change to the lease to add the new tenant and delete the previous tenant. The original tenant will still be responsible for paying the rent until a new tenant is found. Once a new tenant is found, the original tenant often pays a reletting fee, which is usually 85 percent of one month’s rent.

MOVING IN

BEFORE YOU UNPACK

- Take pictures and videos of the apartment and email it to yourself, and your guarantor, so it will be date stamped.
- If the lease states management is responsible for pest control, make sure the place has been exterminated recently.
- Be detailed and specific when completing your apartment condition form.
- Return your apartment condition form within 48 hours of moving in. Make sure to keep a copy for your files.
- Report all maintenance requests separately
- Always keep a copy.
- Send requests in writing through the United States Postal Service (USPS). This is the only way Texas law recognizes your request.
- Never withhold rent if maintenance items are not fixed.
- Have the manager sign and date the apartment condition form and keep a copy.

GET INSURANCE

The landlord generally has insurance that covers the building, but not your belongings. Inquire about renter’s insurance, general liability insurance, personal injury, and flood insurance. Renter’s insurance is very affordable and you may be able to bundle it with your parent’s homeowners’ policy.

- Talk to your insurance company about getting insurance that will cover the following scenarios:
  - Your belongings are damaged due to water, smoke and/or fire.
  - An electrical power surge damages your computer, TV or other electronic equipment.
  - Accidental damage to another person’s property, including the apartment complex.
  - Someone sustains an injury in your apartment.
  - Flooding if you are in a flood zone.

Make sure all utilities (water, electric, gas, etc.) are turned on and in your name. Consider using a utility sharing service when setting up utilities with your roommates.
Living with roommates can be rewarding and challenging. Sharing living space with another person is an option for many off-campus students. Some benefits of shared living include dividing the cost of living expenses and having someone to share your college days. While benefits exist, one should also consider the drawbacks of living with someone who may have different cleaning, sleeping and studying habits as well as different views on religion and politics. Being someone’s roommate can be the beginning of a very influential friendship. It is important to remember that your roommate is not a mirror image of you, and it is OK if roommates are not best friends. Learning to accept each other’s differences without infringing on one another’s freedoms can be a valuable part of your education.

- How many roommates are you looking to have?
- Will you live with friends, or utilize roommate matching services?

Examples of roommate agreements can be searched online.

If you have a roommate conflict, try to handle it at the onset, before it gets worse. For minor problems, talk with your roommate. Listen to the other person’s side, and work together to come up with a solution. If needed, put the solution in writing. If your landlord assigned your roommate, you can ask your landlord for assistance. If the problem escalates, you may want to try mediation.

Roommate Agreement

BE A GOOD NEIGHBOR

Introduce yourself to your neighbors.
- Exchange phone numbers, if you feel comfortable.
- Neighbors may be more likely to watch your residence when you are away.
- Neighbors could contact you directly if there is a problem.

Let neighbors know in advance when you are having a gathering.

Be respectful when having guests over.
- Make sure visitors park in guest parking.
  - Not on the grass, nor reserved spots.
  - Not in front of a neighbor’s house/apartment.

BE A SAFE BOBCAT

- Lock your doors.
- Know your surroundings.
- Let someone know when you are leaving, and when you will return.
- Don’t go out at night alone.
- Wear bright/reflective clothing when walking or running when it is dark.

BE A RESPONSIBLE BOBCAT

Any noise heard outside your residence is too loud.

Follow all rules and make timely payments to AVOID EVICTION.
- A property owner may evict a resident for violation of conditions specified in the lease, major destruction of property or nonpayment of rent.
- The manager must give the resident 24 hours written notice (depending on the lease) of his or her intent to evict for nonpayment of rent.
- If the resident refuses to move, the manager may file an eviction lawsuit in the Justice of the Peace Court to forcibly evict a tenant.

Call the City of Round Rock ($12,255.498) to schedule a bulky waste pick up. Do not leave it at the curb.
