Faculty Accomplishments

Dr. Brian Miller recently co-authored a paper entitled “Accuracy of the Polar F6 in estimating the energy cost of aerobic dance bench stepping in college age females” that was accepted for publication in the Journal of Sports Medicine and Physical Fitness. Dr. Miller did the statistical analysis for the study.

Dr. Brian Miller was also named to the editorial board of the Academy of Management Learning and Education Journal. He is also currently a member of the board for the Journal of Applied Social Psychology and previously served as a board member for the Journal of Organizational Behavior. Editorial review boards are comprised of approximately 30 members from around the world who make important decisions in the double-blind peer review process for scholarly journal articles.

Attention Round Rock Students and Faculty:

There will be an open forum for all students and faculty hosted by the Management Department Chair, Dr. Rechner and Assistant Chair/Internship Coordinator, Mrs. Dietert.

Where: RRHEC—Avery 256
When: October 25th
Time: 5:00—6:30pm

We look forward to seeing you there!

Faculty Accomplishments

Dr. Kay Nicols and Dr. Brian Miller recently traveled to Montreal, Canada, to present their research paper entitled "University satisfaction for college students: A validity study of the core self-evaluations scale" at the annual conference of the Academy of Management. Congratulations Dr. Miller and Dr. Nicols!

Drs. Susan and Eric Kirby and Sandra Pate also attended the 2010 conference. Dr. Eric Kirby participated as a panelist in a professional development workshop entitled “Dare to Care about Your Career: Questions, Answers, and Advice”. Dr. Susan Kirby was a speaker at the Gender and Diversity in Organizations Doctoral Student Consortium.

The Academy is the premier organization for management scholars with almost 20,000 members from over 100 countries around the world. There were 8,000 attendees from 88 countries at the conference.
