Assistant Athletic Trainer

Job Code 00001545

General Description
Responsible for the care, prevention of injury, and rehabilitation of student athletes and assisting with administrative daily activities of the athletic training room including the supervision of student athletic trainers.

Examples of Duties
Assess athletic injuries and identify appropriate plan of action.
Communicate with appropriate medical personnel and document injury.
Administer rehabilitation exercise programs for student athletes, monitoring and documenting progress.
Incorporate preventative measures through taping, pre-participation physical exams, and education for coaches, athletes, and student trainers.
Explain university medical athletics polices to athletes.
Monitor use of supplies, inventory and purchasing.
Supervise student athletic trainers as part of clinical experience.
Provide educational opportunities through both classroom and informal settings for student athletic trainers.
Provide educational guidance and resources.
Perform other duties as assigned.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities
Knowledge of: medical emergencies and the care, prevention and rehabilitation of athletics injuries; scientific theories and principles of water, electricity, and thermal treatments; maintaining confidential medical records; computer hardware and software usage.

Skill in: working as a team member; directing and motivating the work of others; establishing a rapport with a variety of clients.

Ability to: use measuring devices; read and interpret technical manuals; prepare reports, letters, student evaluations, and client records; perform basic math; adapt quickly to changing situations.

Experience and Education
To qualify for this classification, an individual must possess any combination of experience and education that would likely produce the required knowledge, skills, and abilities.

Other Requirements
Texas Licensed as an Athletic Trainer. Current CPR certification.

Reviewed on 5/17