

The RK Group, a full service catering and events company headquartered in San Antonio, is seeking a highly qualified marketing intern for the summer. The ideal candidate is eager to learn marketing practices in the hospitality and event industry. This is a hands on internship with a large amount of opportunity to experience marketing practices in the real world for a wide range of companies. Preferably, interested candidates would be studying degrees in Marketing or Communications and would have an advanced knowledge of the practices.

This is an unpaid internship. We would like someone who can work around 20 hours per week. Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to Jessica Young – jyoung@therkgroup.com.