Dear Honors Students,

Looking for a great way to enjoy your summer and enjoy your required core curriculum?

We are pleased to announce that a few of our most popular classes will be offered this summer including some core curriculum offerings. Students wishing to sign up for the following courses may simply go to CATSWEB and add the classes to their schedules.

Please contact honorsadvising@txstate.edu for any questions about how these classes will count towards your degree. More complete course descriptions are located here. http://www.txstate.edu/honors/courses/offerings.html

Sincerely,

Dr. Galloway

Summer I – June 4 – July 6

- HON 2304A  Meaning of Death
  - R. Fischer MTWRF 12:00-1:40 PM
  - *This class counts in the 040 Core category similarly to PHIL 1305.

- HON 3396B  Playwriting: A Structured Approach to Writing for the Stage
  - J. Morille MTWRF 2:00-3:40 PM
  - *Advanced Theatre or advanced English Group D

Summer II –July 9- August 9

- HON 2309A  Origins of Civilization
  - A. North MWF 4:00-6:50 PM
  - *This class counts in the 090-094 category similarly to Sophomore Literature classes (ENG 23XX).

- HON 3396C  Screenwriting: A Structured Approach to Writing for the Screen
  - J. Morille MTWRF 2:00-3:40 PM
  - *Advanced Theatre, advanced ENG Group D, or counts toward the minor in Media Studies

- HON 2309B  Re-Humanizing Communication
  - M. Burns MTWRF 12:00-1:40 PM
  - *This class counts in the 090-091 category similarly to COMM 1310.

Summer I&II

In addition, HON 4391 Honors Independent Study and HON 4390B Honors Thesis will be offered as courses that extend from June 4 – August 9. Students wishing to register for one of these classes need to see the instructions for creating your own course here and will need to request permission to register. http://www.txstate.edu/honors/courses/studentdesigned.html