Master of Arts in Political Science

Ask about our fully ONLINE program:

Master of Arts in Political Science -
Social Science Teacher Emphasis in American Studies
The social science teacher emphasis, completely online, is tailored specifically for teachers to further their own education as well as to meet requirements in order to teach high school dual credit classes.

Master of Arts
Political Science
Social Science Teacher Emphasis

The master of arts in political science social science teacher emphasis requires the completion of 36 graduate hours.

Core Curriculum:
- Approaches to the Study of Political Science
- Justice and Liberty in American Thought
- The American Presidency
- Congress and the Legislative Process
- Seminar in Constitutional Law and Theory
- Problems in American Foreign Relations
- Texas Politics
- Political Science Curriculum Development
- Political Science Teaching Practicum

Plus:
- Nine Hours of Career Supportive Electives
- Exit Exam

“My instruction at Texas State has been invaluable, not only in improving my knowledge in the subject matter but also in improving content delivery. I’m a much better teacher because of the Texas State political science master’s program.”

Cari Gray, M.A. 2011, AP and Dual Credit Social Studies Teacher at New Braunfels High School

Cari Gray was awarded the 2016 Frank R. Kemerer Award presented by the Texas School Administrator's Legal Digest (TSALD) and the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals (TASSP).

Dr. Cecilia Castillo
Director, Political Science M.A. Program
Office: UAC 355B
Phone: 512.245.7582
Email: cr09@txstate.edu

Dr. Sherri Mora
Associate Chair, Political Science Department
Office: UAC 355
Phone: 512.245.7427
Email: sm43@txstate.edu