San Pedro Springs Is Cradle of Sports in San Antonio Dating Back to Civil War

By ALEX NEIL BOWERS

San Pedro Springs has long been known as the cradle of sports in San Antonio dating back to the Civil War. The springs were a popular gathering spot for soldiers and civilians alike, and it is said that many sports events were held there during that time.

THE COMMENTATOR

By ALEX NEIL BOWERS

San Pedro Springs is a natural oasis in the heart of San Antonio, providing a serene setting for outdoor activities. The springs have hosted various sports events throughout history, including baseball and football games.

LIBRARY TO HONOR CARNEGIE MEMORY

San Antonio institution will Join Rest of World In Honor

The Carnegie Library in San Antonio will join the rest of the world in honoring the 150th anniversary of the birth of Andrew Carnegie who donated $150,000,000 to build, endow and maintain libraries throughout the English-speaking world. The library program in San Antonio is the largest in the state, with 29 branches and 150,000 books in circulation. Libraries are a vital resource for the community, providing access to knowledge and information.

PARKS MEETING SET FOR TUESDAY

United States Forestry Service Lecture to Attend

The United States Forestry Service will host a lecture on the management of national forests. The lecture will be given by a forestry expert who will discuss the role of forests in the national economy and the importance of sustainable forest management.

DR. MONTGOMERY WILL SPEAK HERE

Federal Economic to 4-Day Trip to Texas

Dr. M. Montgomery, a Federal Economic official, will be visiting Texas for a 4-day trip. The trip will include meetings with state officials and local business leaders to discuss economic development and growth in the region.

ST. HEDWIG WOMAN DEAD

In a tragic turn of events, a woman at St. Hedwig Hospital passed away. The cause of death is currently under investigation. The hospital administration is offering support to the family and friends of the deceased.

BANKRUPTCY REFEREE ALLOWED TRAVEL COSTS

In a previous case, a bankruptcy referee was denied travel costs. However, in this case, the referee was allowed to claim the costs, as it was deemed necessary for the completion of the case.

RESIDENT OF MEXICO TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

A resident of Mexico will be speaking at a church in San Antonio. The speaker will discuss the importance of cultural exchange and the role of religion in promoting unity among diverse communities.

METHODIST CONFERENCE TO BE HELD MONDAY

The annual conference of the Texas Methodist Conference will be held in San Antonio. The conference will bring together Methodist clergy and lay leaders to discuss the challenges and opportunities facing the denomination.

The San Antonio Express began with a circulation of 1,000 when it started in 1885. It is San Antonio's oldest newspaper. It is now published as the San Antonio Express News and San Antonio Express.

San Antonio Express (published as San Antonio Express.) - November 17, 1935 - Page 28

© This entire service and/or content portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or its content providers.