

In connection with my participation in Degree Recital:

I understand that my work(s) for the course, consisting of works performed and/or authored by me, will be collected with similar work by other participants in Degree Recital and distributed online to be available for a restricted University audience.

For good and valuable consideration, I authorize Texas State University to (a) record my likeness and voice on a video, audio, photographic, digital, electronic, or any other medium; (b) allow any researchers to view the recording in the University Archives, which is open to the public. Video viewing would be restricted to on-site use with an Archivist present; and (c) allow anyone with a valid Texas State University ID (NetID) to access the recording. This would allow faculty, staff, and students to benefit from the information contained within the recording. Faculty would be able to use parts of the recording in the classroom or for an assignment. Access would be restricted to the university community.

I also grant Texas State University and instructors the irrevocable, royalty-free right to preserve and maintain the contents of the work in perpetuity. Copyright over each individual work, however, remains with its author.

There is no time limit on the validity of this consent and release. I have read and fully understand my agreement is voluntary and is not a condition or requirement of my participation in the class or my attendance at Texas State University and that I can opt out below.

I hereby release and hold Texas State University free and harmless from any claims of libel, slander, invasion or violation of privacy or other similar rights that I may hold or assert. I intend this Release also to bind the members of my family, my heirs, assigns and personal representatives. This release includes all claims, whether or not caused by Releasees' negligence.

I also agree to indemnify and hold Releasees harmless from any loss, damage, liability, or costs that they may incur from the University's limited use of my image, name, or voice.
