Bobbye Watts Student Emergency Services Scholarship Application

Revised October 1, 2021

The Bobbye Watts Student Emergency Services Scholarship is named for Margaret "Bobbye" Watts, who despite a chronic disability, raised four children and earned a bachelor's degree at the age of 62 years old.

The eligibility for the scholarship is based on a financial need as the result of an emergency. An emergency is defined for this scholarship criteria as an unforeseen expense caused by an unexpected circumstance that could lead to decreased student performance, a loss of momentum toward academic success or delays in the student's ability to complete their education.

Texas State University students who meet the criteria are encouraged to apply for this scholarship. All applicants' eligibility will be verified by Dean of Students Office.

1. Applicant must be currently enrolled at Texas State University and be considered a full-time student, based on university criteria.
2. Applicant must have completed a minimum of 15 credit-hours of coursework at Texas State, and be considered in good academic standing.
3. Applicant must be currently registered with the Office of Disability Services, due to a permanent disability.
4. Applicant should have a financial need.

Applications will be evaluated by a scholarship review committee that will select one recipient to award $500 for the Fall 2021 semester. The recipient will be celebrated by having the student's name appear on a plaque posted in the Office of Disability Services. Please provide the following information to complete this scholarship application. Applications are due no later than Sunday, October 31, 2021.
