Psychologist

Job Code 00001440

General Description
Responsible for counseling students with personal and college adjustment problems.

Example of Duties
Conduct group counseling with students.
Recommend and administer objective vocational and psychological tests.
Supervise intern’s preparation of psychological reports.
Train and provide clinical supervision to interns/students.
Complete various forms, reports, and paperwork.
Recommend and monitor referral service.
Present mental health education workshops/seminars.
Participate in various programs/activities.
Conduct and/or review clinical research.
Review psychological evaluations and disability documentation.
Perform general administrative duties.
Perform other duties as assigned.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities
Knowledge of: Psychological, mental, and emotional disorders; mental health laws and codes; professional ethics codes; psychology/counseling research methods and practices; mental health treatment strategies and approaches; career counseling; of Texas Psychology Licensure rules and laws; of intermediate math.

Skill in: Establishing rapport with clients and trainees; working as a team member; effectively directing the work of others; consulting; in teaching/training; crisis intervention.

Ability to: Read and understand case notes, laws, professional journals, letters, reports, and manuals; to prepare clear, concise, and grammatically correct correspondence; communicate effectively with individual and groups; diagnose patients.

Education and Experience
To qualify for this classification, an individual must posses any combination of experience and education that would likely produce the required knowledge, skills, and abilities.

Other Requirements
Ph.D. level training at a counseling/clinical psychology program accredited by the American Psychological Association Licensure eligibility as a Psychologist in Texas.
Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists.

Reviewed on 5/17