GRADUATE SCHOOL IN ART HISTORY

I. Types of degrees and programs
MA (Master of Arts) MS (Master of Science)
PhD (Doctor of Philosophy) MBA (Master of Business Administration)
MLS (Master of Library Science) MPHIL (Master of Philosophy)
Certificate and Postgraduate Diploma MLITT (Master of Letters)

Art History (including History of Architecture and Visual Studies)
Curatorial and Museum Studies/Museum Education
Arts Administration
Library Science

II. Choosing a program
Research curriculum and faculty
Visit campus (interview), if possible
Talk to current graduate students
Look at available resources and special programs
Consider tuition/financial aid (fellowships, teaching assistantships, working assistantships)
Residency requirements
Foreign language competency requirements

III. Application process/requirements
Letter of intent/Statement of purpose
C.V. or resume
Writing sample and/or undergraduate research paper
Letters of Reference
GRE
Foreign language requirement
Minimum GPA (some schools require a minimum 3.5 GPA)
Transcripts
List of undergraduate coursework in art history
Related internship experience (recommended)
Related professional experience (recommended)

IV. Ways to enhance your application
Internships
GPA
Minor
Scholarships/Awards
Foreign language
Study/Travel abroad
Public lectures
Extra-curricular activities (Art History Association)
On-campus work experience
V. Resources
CAA Directory, Graduate Programs in Art History
N385 .G73 2011 Reserve, 3rd Floor or http://www.collegeart.org/directories/

Texas State University Writing Center Consultations, https://www.writingcenter.txstate.edu/About/tutoring.html

Texas State University Career Services, https://www.careerservices.txstate.edu/students-alumni/career-exploration.html

VI. Select Graduate Schools Attended by Alumni
School of the Art Institute of Chicago
Georgetown University
Richmond, The American International University in London
University of Amsterdam, Netherlands
University of Colorado, Boulder
University of Illinois at Chicago
University of Oklahoma
University of North Texas
University of Glasgow Christie’s Education London
University of Southern California