Step 2: Navigate the calendar for each specific site. By clicking "Today", it will bring you to today's date. By clicking the first boxes immediately left or right of "Today", it will navigate forward or back one week (or month, or day, depending on your view range selected). The second boxes to the left or right of "Today" will navigate forward or back one year. If a date says "Reserved", it is unavailable. If a date says "Pending", the date can be requested and you will be put on a wait list.

In the top right of the calendar, you can change the view range for an entire month, a week, or a day.

The screenshot shows the Texas State Facility Schedule interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Texas State logo, a search bar, and links for Sign Up and Log In. Below the navigation bar, the page title is "Facility Schedule" and the location is "University Camp & Lodge - Jeffersonian Lodge". The calendar is for the period "Nov 25 — Dec 1, 2018".

Navigation options are located at the top left and right of the calendar area. On the left, there are buttons for "Month/Week/Day", "today", and "Year". On the right, there are buttons for "month", "week", and "day".
