Web Designer Job Posting

The Ingram School of Engineering is offering a temporary student worker position to assist in the complete re-design of our department website. This project will last the duration of the Spring 2021 semester with the goal of launching a new eye-catching, user friendly website by Summer 2021. The student worker will work closely with the Ingram School of Engineering Director and the Webmasters. Proficiency in web development and digital marketing required. Be prepared to show examples of prior work.

Responsibilities and Experience

• Research relevant websites
• Develop web content and layout using Gato Content Manager
• Produce written and visual content for website.
• Design graphics for website that are consistent with department branding needs.
• Strategize advertising and social media outreach methods.
• Create a plan for future communications.

Qualifications

• Excellent computer knowledge for both MAC and PC
• Must be enrolled at Texas State University
• Must be working towards a degree in Marketing, Digital Media, Advertising, or Computer Science with a focus on web design (Masters level preferred)
• Must be proficient in in basic design programs including Adobe Creative Suite and knowledge of video editing software.
• Must have a keen understanding of JavaScript, CSS, and HTML
• Strong written and verbal communication skills and excellent organizational skills required.

Pay Range: $7.25 - $14.00 per/hr.

Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest, resume, and examples of work on