Young Writers’ Camp 2019
June 17-June 28
Texas State University: Round Rock Campus
Registration Deadline: June 10, 2019

Are you looking for a place to explore your writing—a place to share writing with others who are just as passionate? Then join us for one or two fun-filled weeks to learn more about the craft of writing and to grow in your confidence and skill. These workshops offer young writers the time, opportunity, and artistic freedom to produce their best writing through whole group mini-lessons, peer conferences, as well as personal conferences to promote individual growth as a writer. The workshops are led by teachers who are professional, certified teachers in the state of Texas currently working in area schools and have chosen to deepen their understanding of the teaching of writing through their affiliation with the Central Texas Writing Project at Texas State University. The Central Texas Writing Project is a collaboration of the National Writing Project, Central Texas school districts, and Texas State University.
