UX/UI Designer

Job Code 50023708

General Description
Responsible for developing and producing strong visual UI designs using core and developing wireframes and interactive prototypes for UX testing.

Examples of Job Duties
Provide final production of all assets, and work with programmers to insure accurate translation of designs across platforms and devices.
Conceptualize and design user interfaces, wireframes, prototypes and visual layouts/assets for web, mobile and digital platforms using current Web standards, including best practices for usability and accessibility.
Examine specifications, research and determine the most effective manner of producing a web, mobile or interactive piece.
Work with clients and project team members in meeting and coordinating project schedule, costs, scope and quality requirements.
Analyze client needs, developing strong concepts, communicating and presenting appropriate UI/UX solutions to the client.
Prepare and deliver templates, digital files, and other appropriate assets to programmers, clients or others for final execution, integration or deployment.
Organize and maintain archived files and shared assets and guides.
Provide administrative support for projects such as preparing purchase orders and submit billing for projects.
Conduct workshops or presentations to university community on media, design and their effective use in teaching and learning.
Provide design support, cohesiveness and consultation to project teams and client requests.
Perform other duties are required.

Knowledge, Skill and Abilities
Skill in: Preparing proposals, establishing rapport with a variety of clients, analyzing client needs and proposing solutions, prioritizing workload, troubleshooting equipment, preparing and conducting presentations.

Ability to: Read and interpret technical manuals, designs and layouts, perform intermediate math, explain technical materials to lay persons, use Adobe, Creative Suite/including Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign.

Experience and Education
To qualify for this classification, an individual must possess any combination of experience and education that would likely produce the required knowledge, skills and abilities.

Other Requirements