Smithsonian Institution Fellowships

Fellowship Categories

Predoctoral Fellowships are offered to doctoral candidates who have completed preliminary coursework and examinations, and have been advanced to candidacy. Candidates must have the approval of their universities to conduct doctoral research at the Smithsonian Institution. The term is 3 to 12 months. The stipend is $20,000 per year plus allowances.

Graduate Student Fellowships are offered to students formally enrolled in a graduate program, who have completed at least one semester and not yet have been advanced to candidacy if in a Ph.D. Program. Applicants must submit a proposal for research in a discipline which is pursued at the Smithsonian. The term is 10 weeks; the stipend is $4,500.

These fellowships support research in residence at all Smithsonian facilities except the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory (see separate listing in 'Fellowships and Internships'section).

Applications are available in September, and the deadline for submission is January 15th (postmark). Stipends are prorated for periods of less than twelve months.
