New Degree Program Announcement

The St. David’s School of Nursing in the College of Health Professions will begin offering the Master of Science in Nursing degree (M.S.N.) with a major in Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner beginning spring 2019. This new program will be offered via distance education.

This hybrid post-professional master’s degree program will prepare post-baccalaureate nurses or post-master’s prepared nurses to practice in psychiatric mental health practitioner roles in a variety of health care institutions. Participants seeking career advancement opportunities through graduate education for nurse practitioner positions specializing in psychiatry and mental health will be prepared to effectively translate innovative practice models and expertly direct the delivery of psychiatric, mental, and behavioral health care across organizational models.

For more information about this new degree program, please contact Dr. Marla Erbin-Roesemann, director of the St. David’s School of Nursing, at 512.716.2900 or via email at me16@txstate.edu.
