You must have a minimum of three committee members, including the committee chair, and all committee members must hold a Texas State University graduate faculty appointment. In general, all Professors, Associate Professors and Assistant Professors may serve on thesis committees, while Lecturers and Senior Lecturers may or may not be eligible. If you have any questions regarding the eligibility of a faculty member to serve, check with the chair of the department's Graduate Committee. External committee members (individuals from outside the University) must be approved for a graduate faculty appointment through the department's Graduate Committee before they may serve on a committee.
